

Grant Writing Workshop Wednesday 4th June 2008 Tips from Participants

- There is $10 billion available each year in grants across corporate, government and philanthropy
- Develop a comprehensive funding plan
- Do not leave submissions until the last minute
- Have a snappy title for your program
- Have a clear mission statement and grants template ready before you start writing
- Have multiple types of funding to support a program
- Check out past grants given by the grant maker to find out how much you could get
- Nurture partnerships with grant makers as they are crucial
- Make your grant stand out
- Promote your program ongoing
- Network to find out about different opportunities
- Take time out to reflect on what you are doing and why
- Be clear and consistent in describing what you want funding for