RADISSON RESORT
GOLD COAST

10th & 11th November 2010

The Australian Youth Mentoring Network is delighted to announce Australia's 2nd ever Australian Youth Mentoring conference.

Keynote speaker is internationally renowned mentoring expert:

PROFESSOR DAVID DUBOIS PH.D

David DuBois is an Associate Professor in the Division of Community Health Sciences within the School of Public Health at the University of Illinois at Chicago. He has authored numerous peer-reviewed studies of youth mentoring and is the editor of The Handbook on Mentoring.

This year's conference is focused on:

COLLABORATION

Celebrate strong successful models of COLLABORATION between youth mentoring programs, community groups, private and government organisations.

GUIDANCE

Provide GUIDANCE on the future development of youth policy and advice what mentoring requires in order for it to remain a sustainable youth development model.

EXPERTISE

Learn from those with the EXPERTISE both within Australia and Internationally to further develop a culture of evidence based programs which are providing strong successful mentoring relationships.

Who Should Attend?

Anyone with an interest in youth mentoring practice and theory including but not limited to mentoring program coordinators, managers, teachers, principals youth workers, social workers, academics, sociology researchers, policy writers, and volunteer mentors.

Show and Tell!

The AYMN is looking for unique models of mentoring to showcase at the conference. Programs that work with Indigenous, homeless, multicultural or young refugees are encouraged to submit an abstract to the Show and Tell section of the program!
